

Curriculum Vitae

Chandreyee was born on 1989 in Kolkata, India. She studied Economics from 2008-2013 at the Department of Economics, University of Calcutta. She worked at the Global Change Program, Jadavpur University on climate change and on migration issues at the Centre for Studies in Social Sciences, Kolkata during her graduate studies. She did a summer research internship at the Kiel Institute for the World Economy, Germany in 2013 on aid policies. Since January 2014, she is working as a Research Assistant to the Chair of Political Economy and Development, Prof. Dr. Katharina Michaelowa on climate finance and development related issues.

Research Focus

Applied Climate Policy, Aid Policy, Development and sustainability issues.